SEEK SLAYER OF SALT LAKE PATROLMAN

Salt Lake City—Police authorities of all western states have been asked by Salt Lake City officials to be on the lookout for a five passenger automobile bearing Utah license number 17,715.

With the finding of this machine, officers are endeavoring to locate the person or persons responsible for the brutal killing of Patrolman David J. Crowther of the Salt Lake City police. Crowther's body, a bullet hole through the back of his head, was found on the east bank of the Jordan river near here Sunday. He had been missing since Friday.

OKLAHOMA CAPITAL FACES BIG FLOOD AS TORRENT NEARS

WORST IN HISTORY IS FEARED; RIVER ON RAMPAGE.

STRENGTHEN DAM GANGS WORK FEVERISHLY TO STAVE OFF DISASTER ALONG CANADIAN RIVER.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—A flood menace that, for the first time in the history of the city, was regarded as having a possible threat against the safety of the business section, loomed today with an announcement of J. P. Slaughter, chief of the U. S. Weather bureau, that the Canadian river would reach a stage of 20 to 22 feet between midnight and noon tomorrow.

This is four to six feet higher than the record flood of last spring. From flooded western Oklahoma streams, the swift river, now a half mile to seven miles wide, moved toward the city.

Ten miles west of the capital, men in boots and slickers, aided by teams, have been sand-bagging the embankments of the city water works dam.

Westward from Oklahoma City, river points from 25 to 150 miles distant are reporting the most serious flood damage in their history.

Smuggling Craft Run Down; 5 Die

DETROIT—Five of six Armenians in a rowboat, piloted by a Canadian, were drowned in the Detroit river between Rouge and DeCoeur, Mich., early today, when an unidentified steamer struck the small craft and precipitated its human cargo into the water. The Canadian pilot also was drowned. Aedes Godoshian, 40, Delray, Mich., was the only one saved.

Government immigration authorities and DeCoeur police expressed the belief that the Armenians were being smuggled into the United States from Canada. The belief was strengthened when it was learned that the Armenians had made application for citizenship.

WITH THE FARMERS

Farm Bureau Official Information

CROP SURVEY IS NOT OPTIMISTIC

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Madison—Low yields of hay and extensive frost damage to tobacco are reported in the October survey of the Wisconsin crop reporting service. The survey further showed that there is a marked increase in the production of alfalfa hay, together with a cut in the crop of clover seed amounting to about one-third higher than in August.

Damage to Tobacco.
A record Wisconsin tobacco crop was in prospect at the time of the frost of September 12 and 13, the report said. Practically all unharvested tobacco was injured by the frost, and about half the crop remains to be harvested. The damage varied considerably depending upon the location of fields and if injury occurred on both days. Condition is estimated by reports to be 75 to 80 percent normal. The total production of both frost-damaged and undamaged tobacco is forecast to be 43 million pounds compared to 45 million pounds last year. The difference of 10 million pounds between the September 12 and October 1 forecast is an indication of the frost damage.

There was no serious drought in northern Wisconsin, but in the rest of the state drought cut the yields of hay. The crop was particularly short in the southwestern part of the state, according to the survey. The average yield of tame hay is 1.35 tons per acre as compared to 1.76 tons last year, and a 5-year average of 1.60 tons. Total production is estimated to be 4.4 million tons—slightly less than the 5-year average production and 20 percent below last year's large hay crop.

Hay Crops are Good.
Alfalfa maintained the highest condition of all hay crops during the entire growing season, making an average yield of 2.4 tons per acre, compared to a yield of 2.45 tons for clover hay. Last year's average yield of alfalfa was 2.7 tons. The total tonnage is estimated to be 210,000 tons or 27 percent more than last year. Green, Jefferson and Waubesa counties lead in alfalfa production.

The sugar beet crop in Wisconsin promises to be twice as large as last year, the forecast being 25,000 tons, compared to 12,000 tons last year. Yields will be high in the southeastern part of the state. Indications are that the clover seed crop in Wisconsin is 21 percent below last year. There is a marked reduction in the acreage cut for clover seed, and yields are not as promising as last year.

September milk prices were 10 cents per hundred weight more than the August price. The September average price was $2.10. The average price paid for milk at cheese factories was $2.15 per hundred weight, and butterfat at creameries averaged 43 1/2 cents per pound.

STATE WARNS OF ACORN POISONING
Madison—The state department of agriculture announced today that investigations made by it in southern Wisconsin of supposed cases of hemorrhagic septicaemia showed that the cattle were suffering, instead, from acorn poisoning. More than the usual number of cattle have died from this poisoning, due to the large crop of acorns, the announcement said. Owners of cattle are warned to watch for symptoms of the disease, which is usually accompanied by emaciation and subnormal temperature.

COLORADO JUDGE LIKES CATTLE HERE

George B. Morton, son of early Rock Prairie residents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morton, now connected with the Colorado College of Agriculture, animal husbandry department, made a pleasant visit to many of Rock county's livestock farms Saturday with J. C. Nisbet, livestock agent. Prof. Morton is returning from the National Dairy show held in Syracuse, N. Y., and was the guest of his sister Mrs. F. R. Hyslop and Dr. Hyslop, Janesville.

The western man is a keen judge of dairy cattle and while at the National attended the judging school conducted by W. S. Moser, Lake Elmo, the foremost judge of Holsteins in the country.

A number of herds were visited including that of B. F. Coon where the Wisconsin grand champion, Walcott Oille Hyland, is going into service. After careful examination of "Oille" the western judge had this to say: "I don't think there was a Holstein bull at the National that could defeat him. He is one of the best—if not the best—that I ever looked at."

While making the trip to several farms, Prof. Morton selected 15 head of grade Holsteins, which may be later shipped to Colorado, and opening up a valley a corporation farmers, bankers and business men is being formed to create a fund to purchase dairy cattle.

As soon as this corporation is properly organized and financed, Colorado will be in the market for considerable livestock. It was explained, "The farmers there have been trying to raise potatoes but the distance from the market has prevented much chance of a profit. It will be a great dairy country in time."

While here Prof. Morton made an effort to price Sir Echo Sylvia Leeds, the herd sire at the A. G. Russell and Son farm. The Colorado man declared that Rock county was certain to be a national leader with Holsteins and dairy cattle because of the many good herd sires.

BADGER CHOSEN TO RESCUE PARTY IN NORTH POLE AREA

Milwaukee—William A. Campbell, formerly state assemblyman from Milwaukee, has been selected by the Canadian government to attempt the rescue of seven or eight Americans, icebound for 10 years near the north pole.

The marooned men went to the north with Vilhjalmar Stefansson during the winter of 1912-13, but did not return with later rescue parties or when Stefansson returned. Campbell expects to leave for his starting base next month. It was Campbell who, in 1920, found Stefansson's men and brought them from the Arctic circle.

Ekern Says S. O. Company Should Pay More Taxes

Madison.—Attorney General Herman L. Ekern today in a letter to the Wisconsin tax commission indicated that the state may demand additional taxes from the Standard Oil company of Indiana as a result of the investigation conducted into its affairs by the state department of markets. The attorney general recommends that the tax department return the company on the ground that charges have been made against business done in Wisconsin which are unwarranted if testimony given by Standard Oil company officials is correct.

"During the hearings it was brought out that in the accounting of the company, the marketing department of that concern in Wisconsin was, during the last year, charged 14.8 cents per gallon less for gasoline than the tank wagon prices in Wisconsin, and that this method was uniformly applied the same when the tank wagon was reduced to 14.3 cents as while it was 22.9 cents per gallon," Attorney General Ekern said.

Boat Without Lights

The lake steamer was moving down the river when the accident happened. The row boat was traveling without lights and was undistinguishable in the dense fog that hung over the water. The steamer struck the boat and hurled its occupants into the river. It kept on its course apparently unaware of the accident. Abedes Godoslan was pulled from the river by Miles West, a resident of a house boat on the American side of the river, who heard the frantic cries of the drowning persons. He went to their rescue in a motor launch but when he reached the boat he found only one Abedes was on top of the water. The bodies of the six were not recovered. Horse police were notified and Abedes was taken to a hospital.

Held for Authorities

Questioned by the police, he said the party of seven left Sandwich, Ont., at midnight last night, and rowed stealthily up the Canadian side of the river. Spotting a desolate place along the river they put out straight ahead until hit by the steamer.

He said he had bargained with the Canadian at Windsor for the smuggling of his children and his brother's children into the United States and was to pay him several thousand dollars on their safe arrival. He said he did not know the name of the Canadian.

Godoslan is being held for American immigration authorities.

Overcoat Taken.—Mark Kelly, route 3, reported the police that a brown overcoat was stolen from his car parked on South River street, Saturday night.

GOV. PINCHOT PUTS LAW ENFORCEMENT UP TO PRESIDENT

whiskey, with beer and hops, has supplied the sinews of war for bad politics, and politics has returned the favor.

"Take Pennsylvania for example, I assume that the story of federal law enforcement in Pennsylvania is not essentially different from the same story in other states. Until the present state administration came into power the commonwealth itself did little or nothing. Under the federal prohibition directors in Pennsylvania were democrats elected for political reasons.

A Notorious Case

"To approve the mantle of charity over them, it has been said that they went out of office without having advanced the cause they were supposed to champion. The third director was the notorious McCone, a politician known to be opposed to the eighteenth amendment when he was appointed. McCone's appointment, which was a scandal in itself, was promptly followed by the release of a flood of salaried permits of many hundreds of thousands of gallons of whiskey, and a little later by his own indictment for that of number of his assistants for such release.

"McCone's performance was precisely what must have been looked for by anyone who knew him. It is difficult not to believe that what he did was edited and interpreted by the power to which his appointment was due. After McCone's, the next director made a record which offers no chance for a repeat of the next day's wholly different character of law breaking by officials high in the government of the United States. We started except other companies in respect and obey the law if the capital of the nation itself is a leader among law breakers. Washington has set the bad example, and it is for Washington to repair the damage.

"I am not one to disavow the responsibility of each state for enforcing the law. Pennsylvania need not look to the federal government for help in this respect. But I recognize, as every man must who has studied the situation, that the leading part in successful enforcement must be taken by the state government, and can only be exercised by it. It has, and it alone can employ, powers granted to none of the states—power to enforce the law. The law cannot be successfully enforced.

Aided by Federal Agents

"The principal violations of the law have been through bootleggers who obtain liquor through large quantities. They can secure such quantities only through permission of the federal authorities. So liquor can be obtained through bootlegging without without using the law. The federal government can only be produced without a federal permit. All whiskey and alcohol in storage is safely in control of the federal government. None can be released from

Such an arrangement should be temporary. The president is heavily handicapped in this respect. It should be added to his load without serious reason. But the fact is that the attack upon the constitution and the law of the country now being directed against the eighteenth amendment and its supporting laws is one of the most serious in our history. It should be for all law men more effectively enforced. The law of the enforcement service than in any other way. The bootleggers, the lawless saloonmen and the brewers are the head and shoulders of the army of criminals in America. All of these lost its soul in politics. The federal enforcement service in Pennsylvania lost its soul through politics and will never be worth its salt until it is taken wholly out of politics. That is the first step in my state, and I infer in the others also.

It is not in my judgment, to make the head of the enforcement situation is cleared up, responsible directly to the president of the United States. Under the existing organization the line of responsibility runs from the president to the secretary of the treasury, from him to the commissioner of internal revenue, and from him to the various subordinate agencies. This is a very serious situation in which responsibility is definitely centered, one in which the buck cannot be passed, and over which the president has complete control.

Up to President

"Such an arrangement should be temporary. The president is heavily handicapped in this respect. It should be added to his load without serious reason. But the fact is that the attack upon the constitution and the law of the country now being directed against the eighteenth amendment and its supporting laws is one of the most serious in our history. facts taken together furnish abundant reason for treating this matter as of sufficient importance to enlist the active direction of the president himself. He is the only man who can bring together in harmonious effective action all the necessary government forces. He alone, in my opinion, can meet the present emergency.

These brewers, bootleggers and saloon keepers have made a larger issue than that between the states and the federal government. They have thrown down the gauntlet to all law under the government of the United States. They defy our constitution and our laws as they defy the states, the congress and the whiskey rebellion of Washington's time. Washington in that emergency took personal charge of seeing that the law was respected as supreme and prepared to use all the powers of the government, if necessary, to make it so. His example is a sound one to follow in the whiskey rebellion of today.

Political Manoeuvring

"There is another reason why the president should take personal charge. Not only has the political maneuvering of the federal government service had its seat in Washington, but it is notorious that disobedience to the eighteenth amendment has been flagrant in the capital city. There are innumerable of the active practice and encouragement of law breaking by officials high in the government of the United States. We started except other companies in respect and obey the law if the capital of the nation itself is a leader among law breakers. Washington has set the bad example, and it is for Washington to repair the damage.

The Yankees, in the first five games of this series played about twice as well as they did in the five games last year, when they lost four to the Glants and tied one. In 1922 they made 22 hits and 11 runs and had a batting average of .233. This year in five games they have made 35 hits, scored 24 runs, and batted .316. The Glants, who made 50 hits and scored 18 runs last year and batted .280, have made 37 hits and 12 runs and batted .224 this year.

The Menzel brothers, Bob of the Yankees and Emil of the Glants, are having a little contest all their own. So far Bob has been at bat 22 times and made six hits, while Emil, at bat 21 times, who has hit six times, has made one home run, one double, one triple and one homer.

Aaron Ward, the Yankee second baseman, has collected more hits than any other player in the series. At bat 20 times, he has made nine safeties, including a homer. He walked once, stole one base and scored four runs. Ward's batting average is .450.

Colonel Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, is so overjoyed at the prospect of a world series championship that he can't keep still. Yesterday after the Glants had their turn at bat in the seventh, he left the stadium and went down town to order. It was rumored, handsome presents for the Yankee players.

La Crosse Normal school upset the Wisconsin Normal school by defeating Coach Howard (Cub) Bue's La Crosse college eleven, three champions of the Little Five conference, 15 to 9. Saturday. Lawrence, who had crossed the normal's goal, its points being made by three place kicks.

In an evenly matched game, Monroe High on Saturday defeated the Plattville Normal second team, 2 to 0, scoring a safety in the final quarter.

Eau Claire was eliminated from the state high school football championship game at La Crosse eleven trounced them, 26 to 0. The victors relied on straight football alone.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Coach Stagg of Chicago, has once again delivered a fusillade against recruiting college athletes. He has been so often hit so often that he has been called "the grand old man" of the game. The "grand old man" is a wise actor and may be expected to be delivering a gentle warning through his talks. The writer well remembers when he started reading history in grade school days, how he and his classmates were as indignant as kids could be when he learned how the British hired the Hessians to fight for them in the Revolution. Recruiting athletes is exactly that same thing, bringing no glory nor honor and those who practice "winning any way."

The Milwaukee Badgers and the Racine Hawks of the national professional football league battled to a 7 to 7 tie at Milwaukee, Sunday, in a game replete with sensational and thrilling plays. Milwaukee scored in the first quarter on a fake play, when the Hawks failed to block back of Racine's goal. Racine scored in the last five minutes of play on a pass from "Shorty" Barr to Meyers.

All attendance records for baseball games in Chicago were smashed Sunday, when 42,000 people jammed the White Sox park and saw the Sox even up the city series by defeating the Cubs, 2 to 1. Each club now won two games. Admission fees Sunday totaled $36,700.

VISITORS SWEEP OFF THEIR FEET BY "GIBSONITES"

By FRANK SINCLAIR

Battering their opponents line for large gains, the Janesville high school eleven gave a good indication of its football prowess at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon, defeating University of Wisconsin high, 24-7. From the start it was the final outcome was never in doubt, the Janesville team outplaying the Madison aggregation both on offense and defense.

Five minutes of play saw a touchdown for Janesville when Stuart football put the ball on Madison's 25 yard line from where Bill Austin, Janesville's end, carried the ball across the goal line on a pretty pass from Charlie Knipp, Austin's halfback. The ball was caught by Condon, who was unable to control it, and it was lost. The ball was then carried by Knipp, who was tackled by Madison's line. The ball was then carried by Knipp, who was tackled by Madison's line. The ball was then carried by Knipp, who was tackled by Madison's line.

In the second quarter Janesville got the ball on Madison's 20 yard line after an exchange of punts and a fumble. Quarterback Knipp, with good interference, took the ball around the end for 20 yards. Knipp then carried the ball for 20 yards and the ball was carried over on the next play by Condon. The half ended with the score 12-9 in favor of the Blues.

The second half was but a repetition of the first with the Wisconsin high team on the defense a large part of the time and unable to consistently repel the line plunging of their opponents. Twice Janesville worked the ball towards their goal line to lose it on intercepted passes.

Janesville rooters cheered Joe Leary, when the human battering ram of the high school team walked through a "hole" made in the Madison line for a touchdown from the 20 yard line. And a few minutes later Johnson, one of the Janesville luminaries, repeated the performance, going around the end, and Coach Gibson then called in his star backfield, sending in their place Hahn, quarterback, Huggins and Brennan, halves, and Bradford, fullback. With these men in the field who lack nothing more than experience, the Wisconsin high team scored a touchdown in the final quarter, pushing over the goal line. Alton, the 200 pound tackle, kicked goal.

Three of the four attempts of Janesville at the points after touchdowns, going around the end, failed. Elmhurst, center, to Knipp, as a result, Condon had no other chance than to try to run through the Wisconsin line and was halted every time.

Credit to Gibson
As a whole the performance was pleasing to Janesville and reflects much credit on Coach Gibson in bringing the marked improvement in the driving of the first and second backfield. Capt. Joe Leary was the tower of strength in the Janesville offense but Knipp, Johnson and Condon showed to advantage. The line play was much better than a week ago and they made great holes in the Wisconsin line, continually attracting the most attention was Jake Stern, whose play at a tackle position boistered up the line.

Four boys were given a chance in the line during the second half: Terrell replacing Fagel; Cunningham for Hallett; Bolton for Austin; Howard for Nightengale. Howard looks like a good possibility as a successor to Nightengale who was the object of most of the attack of the Wisconsin team.

"My Kingdom for Pitchers," M'Graw

By FRANK SINCLAIR

New York.—The New York Yankees stand today on the threshold of the world baseball championship. "Bullet Joe" Bush, pitching the way he did when he got his nickname, pushed them there, leading the Glants to three hits, all made by Irish Meusel, in the fifth game of the world's series Sunday.

While Bush was shooting them across the plate with such bewildering speed and curves, his teammates were bumping the Glants for 14 hits and winning the game, 8 to 1. It takes four games to win the world's championship. The Yankees now have won three, the Glants but two.

The Yankees have three of their best pitchers rostered and ready to go. The Glants have only one. John McGraw is famed as the greatest pitcher in baseball, but he never had so much thinking to do as now. Arthur Meusel, who pitched the way he did when he got his nickname, pushed them there, leading the Glants to three hits, all made by Irish Meusel, in the fifth game of the world's series Sunday.

McGraw is faced with the necessity of using him again. The right-hander who was knocked out of the box by the Yankees in the first game, is the only other pitcher of the Glants' staff who has had a good rest. McGraw was besides thinking, takes chances, may send Watson in today, depending on him to check the Yankees, who have been hitting wildly in the last two games. It is certain that if Watson is started, he will be hauled right away from the pitching mound as soon as anything like a run is scored.

Huggins' hitting average, which shows that McGraw was besides thinking, takes chances, may send Watson in today, depending on him to check the Yankees, who have been hitting wildly in the last two games. It is certain that if Watson is started, he will be hauled right away from the pitching mound as soon as anything like a run is scored.

McGraw is far from downhearted. He realizes he is in a fix; he never before experienced in his world series games, but he has confidence in his men and figures that luck creeps in sometimes and helps a man who needs it. "Any thing may happen," he says.

Miller Huggins is resting easy. He has both Jones and Hoyt primed for duty today. "Sad Sam," who pitched such a fine game Friday until Casey Stengel got away with his home run, is in the best of health. Huggins' hitting average, which shows that McGraw was besides thinking, takes chances, may send Watson in today, depending on him to check the Yankees, who have been hitting wildly in the last two games. It is certain that if Watson is started, he will be hauled right away from the pitching mound as soon as anything like a run is scored.

Four boys were given a chance in the line during the second half: Terrell replacing Fagel; Cunningham for Hallett; Bolton for Austin; Howard for Nightengale. Howard looks like a good possibility as a successor to Nightengale who was the object of most of the attack of the Wisconsin team.
